From the Vice Chancellor's Desk

Maharana Pratap Horticultural University came into existence by Haryana Act 32 of 2016 on 8th November 2016, with the aim to develop diversified sustainable farming systems for improving productivity and profitability in horticulture in the Haryana State. In this backdrop, MHU aims to strengthen teaching, research and extension in the field of horticulture through development of technologically proficient and innovation oriented human resource for furtherance of horticulture in the state.

Maharana Pratap Horticultural University (MHU) is the 1st Horticulture University in the Haryana State with main campus situated in the premises of Horticulture Training Institute, Uchani Karnal. The M.Sc. and Ph.D classes in the discipline of Horticulture (Fruit Science, Vegetable Science and Floriculture & Landscaping) started from Academic Session 2017-18. The classes of B.Sc. (Hons.) Horticulture - 4 year programme started from Academic Session 2020-21.

The University has established its six Regional Research Centres in the State i.e. Anjanthali (Karnal), Chansoli (Ambala), Badhana (Jind), Murthal (Sonapat), Raiya(Jhajjar) and Kharkari (Bhiwani) to undertake location specific research. The university has upgraded its facilities over time to meet the changing demands of horticultural research and education. The university has created four state of art laboratories viz., Bio- Control Lab, Quality Control Lab, Plant tissue Culture Lab and Seed Infra Lab. The university has also initiated seed production program for production of quality seeds of vegetable and seed spices for the benefit of farmers.

The University is striving hard and making constructive efforts for transfer of new technology to the farmers for enhancing farming income to achieve income security along with food and nutritional security.

The MHU is consistently working to improve the caliber of horticultural research and instruction. The University has inked important MoU's (Memorandum of Understanding) with different Govt. / Private Institutions to promote teaching, research and extension activities for the upliftment / betterment of students, youth, farmers and other stakeholders. The university has signed an MoU with Brunel University, London for evolving solar based cold storage system. The University has also signed Letter of Intent with Kochi University, Kochi, Japan for collaboration for advancement of research on horticultural crops. The Maharana Pratap Horticultural University has recently got an Award of Best Horticultural University in the country in the Agri Business Summit held in Hyderabad on 13th April 2024.

I am happy to share that out of 30 Post-Graduate students who have successfully passed out from the University, 11 students have got placement for govt. jobs and 4 in private companies, 2 in banks and remaining have gone for higher studies. The University is functioning with highly educated and dedicated team of professionals including Deans / Director / Professors / Associate Professors and Assistant Professors in various disciplines. The University will continue to develop multi-disciplinary programmes and new ventures. Out of 7 Ph.D students 3 have got Govt. Jobs, 4 in private companies.

I am happy to announce that our university has implemented 5th Dean's Committee of ICAR recommendations. We are committed to provide educational opportunities in the field of horticulture for overall development of students, horticulture sector and agrarian society of the state. All admissions in UG Programme are being made on the basis of merit with transparent procedure. I assure for all possible support for achieving goals in all round career and upliftment of students in their academic pursuits. I take pleasure in releasing MHU Prospectus 2024-25 with the theme of “Cultivating of Tomorrow’s Horticulturists”

I, on behalf of the University, wish you every success in your chosen academic programme at MHU, Karnal.

Prof. Suresh Kumar Malhotra

Registrars' Message

Dear Students,

I am delighted to extend my warmest greetings and welcome you to India's Fifth Horticultural University- committed to empowering the next generation of horticulture professionals. In today's dynamic education environment, change is a constant factor that affects everyone. What is considered the best today can quickly become irrelevant tomorrow. I look forward to welcoming you to our campus and being a part of your educational journey.

As the Registrar of our esteemed university, it is my distinct pleasure to invite you to explore the diverse and innovative educational opportunities that await you within our vibrant academic community. In today's rapidly changing world, people are becoming more conscious to health, food habits are too changing. Demand of horticulture produce is surging. Employers are looking for graduates with the skills and experience to hit the ground running. That's why the Govt. of Haryana has created a university that focuses on Horticulture only to strengthen HRD component for teaching, research & extension component.

I also invite parents, guardians, and the community to partner with us in our mission to provide quality education and create a positive impact on society. Your involvement and support are invaluable in shaping the future of our students and the nation

With incessant inspiration of our Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, active participation of teachers, researchers, and its employees, Maharana Pratap Horticultural University is persistently endeavoring to attain academic excellence and create a concrete edifice for an excellent future of our youth. University has a highly dedicated team that has worked hard with full commitment to meet the vision of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Dr. Suresh Kumar Malhotra to develop a university with Distinction.

Thank you for considering Maharana Pratap Horticultural University as the platform for your academic and personal growth. Together, let us build a future that is both rewarding and impactful.

Dr. Ajay Singh

Deans' Message

The Maharana Pratap Horticultural University (MHU), Karnal, is 1st State Horticultural University in Haryana. The prime aim of this newly established University in the State is to fulfill the mandates of teaching, research and extension. There is one constituent college namely College of Horticulture at Anjanthali, Kamal to impart quality education to the students of B.Sc. (Hons) Horticulture (4 year) Programme, M.sc. and Ph.D. in Fruit Science, Vegetable Science and Floriculture and Landscaping. At present, 176 students of B.Sc. (Hons) Hort-4-year Programme are pursuing study in College of Horticulture, Anjanthali, Kamal. Apart from undergraduate Programme in Horticulture, Master's and Ph.D. students are enrolled in different disciplines (Fruit Science, Vegetable Science and Floriculture and Landscaping).

The Dean of College of Horticulture and Dean, Post-graduate Studies have been entrusted with the responsibility of undergraduate and postgraduate teaching in the College of Horticulture in coordination with the Director of Research and Director of Extension Education. At MHU, we strive to create a welcoming and congenial working atmosphere in which teachers do their best with maximum potential in terms of professional and intellectual development. Our main mission is to make knowledge progression more efficient, active and employment friendly. Our goal is to usher in a paradigm shift in new technologies and innovations for optimal development in horticulture crops. All the undergraduate students are registered on academic bank of credit portal. The college has smart classroom equipped with audio-visual aids, state of the art laboratories, AR & VR lab, etc. The students are provided quality education and hands on training on various aspects of cultivation, production, protection, post-harvest management, etc. in the field of horticulture.

Our university offers you more than simply a place to study; it's a starting point for your intellectual and self-discovery journey. In my capacity as Dean, CoH, MHU, Karnal it gives me great pleasure to invite you to become a part of our dynamic academic community. World-class instructors, innovative research opportunities, and a nurturing environment that encourages you to reach your full potential will all be found here.

- (k) The Deans/Principal shall tighten security in college premises, especially at vulnerable places and intense policing by Anti-Ragging Squad, referred to in these Rules and volunteers, if any, shall be resorted to such points at odd hours during the first few months of the academic session.
- (l) The Deans/Principal shall utilize the vacation period before the start of the new academic year to launch a publicity campaign against ragging through posters, leaflets and such other means, as may be desirable or required, to promote the objectives of these Rules.
- (m) The faculties/departments/units of the College of Horticulture shall have induction arrangements, including those which anticipate, identify and plan to meet any special needs of any specific section of students, in place well in advance of the beginning of the academic year with an aim to promote the objective of this Rule.
- (n) The College shall engage or seek the assistance of professional counselors before the commencement of the academic session, to be available when required by the College, for the purposes of offering counselling to the fresher's and to other students after the commencement of the academic year
- (o) The Deans/Principal/DSW shall provide information to the local police and local authorities, the details of hostels used for residential purposes by students enrolled in the University and the Deans/Principal/DSW shall also ensure that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall ensure vigil in such hostels to prevent the occurrence of ragging therein.
- (p) The Deans/Principal shall be overall responsible to stop and prevent ragging and take all necessary preventive measures to prohibit ragging in College of Horticulture and shall ensure that no person practice ragging in any form within or outside the premises of the University and adopt required measures to achieve the object.
- (q) The Deans/Principal shall give full publicity to the punishments to be awarded for ragging through open circulars and suitable posters in the educational institution.
- Notify any change in the constitution of the committee immediately and shall take necessary action as per Rule 6.1(l) above.
- 6.2 The University shall, on admission or enrolment or registration of students, take the following steps, namely;
- (a) Every fresh student admitted to the University shall be given a printed leaflet by the concerned Deans/Principal detailing to whom he/she has to turn to for help and guidance for various purposes including addresses and telephone numbers, so as to enable the student to contact the concerned person at any time, if and when required of the Anti-Ragging Helpline referred to in these Rules, Wardens, Deans/Principal, all members of the Anti-Ragging Squads and committees, relevant district police authorities.
- (b) The College of Horticulture, through the leaflet specified in clause (a) of Rule 6.2 of these Rules shall explain to the fresher's, the arrangements made for their induction and orientation which promote efficient and effective means of integrating them fully as students with those already admitted to the University in earlier years.
- The leaflet specified in clause (a) of Rule 6.2 of these Rules shall inform the fresher's about their rights as bonafide students of the University and clearly instructing them that they should desist from doing anything, with or against their will, even if ordered to by the senior students, and that any attempt of ragging shall be promptly reported to the Anti-Ragging Squad or to the Warden or to the Deans/ DSW, as the case may be.

- (d) The leaflet specified in Clause (a) of Rule 6.2 of these rules shall contain a calendar of events and activities laid down by the University to facilitate and complement familiarization of fresher's with the academic environment of the University.
- (e) The Deans/Principal shall, on the arrival of senior students after the first week or after the second week, as the case may be, schedule orientation Programmes as follows, namely' (i) joint sensitization Programme and counselling of both fresher's and senior students by a professional counselor, referred to in Clause (n) of Rule 6.1 of these Rules; (ii) joint orientation Programme of freshers and seniors to be addressed by the Deans/Principal, and the Anti-Ragging Committee; (iii) organization on a large scale of cultural, sports and other activities to provide a platform for the freshers and seniors to interact in the presence of faculty members; (iv) in the hostel, the warden should address all students' and may request two junior colleagues from the college faculty to assist the warden by becoming resident tutors for a temporary duration; (v) as far as possible faculty members should dine with the hostel residents in their respective hostels to instill a feeling of confidence among the freshers.
- (f) The Deans/Principal shall set up appropriate committees, including the course-in-charge, student advisor, wardens and some senior students as its members, to actively monitor, promote and regulate healthy interaction between the freshers, junior students and senior students.
- (g) Freshers or any other student(s), whether being victims, or witnesses, in any incident of ragging, shall be encouraged to report such occurrence, and the identity of such informants shall be protected and shall not be subject to any adverse consequence only for the reason for having reported such incidents.
- (h) Each batch of freshers, on arrival at the University, shall be divided into small groups and each group shall be assigned to a advisor of the faculty by the Deans/Principal, who shall interact individually with each members of the group every day for ascertaining the problems or difficulties, if any, faced by the fresher in the University and shall extend necessary help to the fresher in overcoming the same.
- (i) It shall be the responsibility of the advisor assigned to the group of freshers, to coordinate with the wardens of the hostels and to make surprise visits to the rooms in such hostels, where a member or members of the group are lodged and such advisor shall maintain a diary of his/her interaction with the freshers under his/her charge.
- (j) The DSW/Hostel Wardens shall ensure that freshers shall be lodged, as far as may be, in a separate hostel/block. The DSW/Hostel Wardens shall ensure that access of seniors to accommodation allotted to freshers is strictly monitored by wardens, security guards and other staff.
- (k) A round the clock vigil against ragging in the hostel premises, in order to prevent ragging in the hostels after the classes are over, shall be ensured by the Deans/Principal/DSW.
- (l) It shall be responsibility of the parents/guardians of fresher to promptly bring any instance of ragging to the notice of the Deans/Principal/DSW.
- (m) Every student studying in the University and his/her parents/guardians shall provide specific an undertaking by the students and parents required under Clauses (c),(d) and (g) of Rule 6.1 of these Rules at the time of admission or registration, as the case may be, during each academic year.
- (n) Every Constituent College shall obtain an undertaking by the students and parents from every student as referred to above in clause (m) of Rule 6.2 and maintain a proper record of the same and to ensure its safe upkeep thereof, including maintaining the copies of the undertaking by the students and parents in an electronic form, to be accessed easily when required either by the University/Commissioner any of the Councils or by any other person or organization authorized to do so.
- (o) Every student at the time of his/her registration shall inform the Deans/Principal about his/her place of residence while pursuing the course of study, and in case the student has not decided his/her place of residence or intends to change the same, the details of his place of residence shall be provided immediately on deciding the same; and specifically in regard to a private commercially managed lodge or hostel where he/she has taken up residence.

- (p) The Deans/Principal shall, on the basis of the information provided by the student under clause (o) of Rule 6.2, apportion sectors to be assigned to members of the faculty, so that such member of faculty can maintain vigil and report any incident of ragging outside the campus or en route while commuting to the institution using any means of transportation of students, whether public or private.
- (q) The Deans/Principal shall, at the end of each academic year, send a letter to the parents/guardians of the students who are completing their first year in the University, informing them about these Rules and any law for the time being in force prohibiting ragging and the punishments thereof as well as punishments prescribed under penal laws, and appealing to them to impress upon their wards to desist from indulging in ragging on their return to the University at the beginning of the academic session next.

6.3 The University shall constitute the following bodies; namely,

- a) The University shall constitute a Committee to be known as the Anti-Ragging Committee to be proposed by the DSW and headed by the Registrar, and consisting of three senior faculty members out of which at least one shall be a woman, representatives of civil and police administration, local media, Non-Government Organizations involved in youth activities, two representatives from amongst the parents of the students including a woman of fresher' category as well as senior students, non-teaching staff, and shall have a diverse mix of membership in terms of levels as well as gender. The parents of the students nominated in a committee shall hold office for a maximum term of two academic sessions.
- (b) It shall be the duty of the Anti Ragging Committee to ensure compliance with the provisions of these Rules as well as the provisions of any law for the time being in force concerning ragging; and also to monitor and oversee the performance of the Anti-Ragging Squad in prevention of ragging in the University.
- (c) Every Constituent College shall also constitute a smaller body to be known as the Anti-Ragging Squad to be nominated by the Deans/Principal with such representation as may be considered necessary for maintaining vigil, oversight and patrolling functions and shall remain mobile, alert and active at all times. Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squads shall have representation of various members of the campus community and shall have no outside representation.
- (d) It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squads to be called upon to make surprise raids on hostels, and other places vulnerable to incidents of, and having the potential of, ragging and shall be empowered to inspect such places.
- (e) It shall also be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squads to conduct an on-the-spot enquiry into any incident of ragging referred to it by the Deans/ Principal or any member of the faculty or any member of the staff or any student or any parent or guardian or any employee of a service provider or by any other person, as the case may be; and the enquiry report along with recommendations shall be submitted to the Anti-Ragging Committee for action under clause (a) of these Rules.

Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squads shall conduct such enquiry observing a fair and transparent procedure and the principles of natural justice and after giving adequate opportunity to the student or students accused of ragging and other witnesses to place before it the facts, documents and views concerning the incident of ragging, and considering such other relevant information as may be required.

- (i) The Committee shall have powers and functions in addition to above as under:
- (ii) The committee or any member thereof shall have power to inspect any class room, hostel room or any other enclosure where it apprehends that any incident of ragging is being committed or there is apprehension of the same.
- (iii) The committee may take appropriate steps and suggest such measures, as deemed necessary to the Deans/Principal.

The committee shall submit the inquiry report to the concerned Dean/Principal within seventy two hours of the incident for appropriate action under the Act.

Provided that in case an offence is committed under the provisions of Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860) and is a cognizable offence, the member shall immediately report the matter to the Deans/Principal.

- (f) Every Constituent College shall, at the end of each academic year, in order to promote the objectives of these Rules, constitute a Mentoring Cell consisting of students volunteering to be Mentors for freshers, in the succeeding academic year; and there shall be as many levels or tiers of Mentors as the number of batches in the institution, at the rate of one Mentor for six freshers and one Mentor of a higher level for six mentors of the lower level.

- 6.4 The University shall take the following other measures, namely;
- (a) As far as possible each hostel or a place where groups of students reside, forming part of the University, shall have a full-time Warden, to be appointed by the University as per the eligibility criteria laid down for the post reflecting both the command and control aspects of maintaining discipline and preventing incidents of ragging within the hostel, as well as the softer skills of counselling and communicating with the youth outside the class-room situation; and who shall reside within the hostel, or at the very least, in the close vicinity thereof.
 - (b) The Warden shall be accessible at all hours and be available on telephone and other modes of communication, the number of Hostel Warden shall be publicized among all students residing in the hostel.
 - (c) The University shall review and suitably enhance the powers of Wardens; and the security personnel posted in hostels shall be under the direct control of the Warden and their performance shall be assessed by them.
 - (d) The professional counselors referred to under Clause (n) of rule 6.1 of these Rules shall, at the time of admission, counsel freshers and/or any other student(s) desiring counselling, in order to prepare them for the life ahead, particularly in regard to the life in hostels and to the extent possible, also involve parents and teachers in the counselling sessions.
 - (e) The University shall undertake measures for extensive publicity against ragging by means of audio-visual aids, counselling sessions, workshops, painting and design competitions among students and such other measures, as it may deem fit.
 - (f) In order to enable a student or any person to communicate with the Anti-Ragging Helpline, every College/Deptt./Office shall permit unrestricted access to phones in hostels and campuses, other than in classrooms, seminar halls, library, and in such other places that the College/Deptt./Office may deem fit necessary to restrict the use of phones.
 - (g) The faculty of the College of Horticulture and its non-teaching staff, which includes but is not limited to the administrative staff, contract employees, security guards and employees of service providers providing services within the institution, shall be sensitized towards the ills of ragging, its prevention and the consequences thereof.
 - (h) The Deans/Directors/Heads of Depts./Offices/Sections shall obtain an undertaking from every employee including all teaching and non-teaching members of staff, contract labor employed in the premises either for running canteen or as watch and ward staff or for cleaning or maintenance of the building/lawns and employees of service providers providing services within the University, that he/she would report promptly any case of ragging which comes to his/her notice.
 - (i) The University shall make a provision in the service rules of its employees for issuing certificates of appreciation to such members of the staff who report incidents of ragging, which will form part of their service record.
 - (j) The University shall give necessary instructions to the employees of the canteens and messing, whether that of the University or that of a service provider providing this service, or their employers, as the case may be, to keep a strict vigil in the area of their work and to report the incidents of ragging to the Deans/Principal/DSW or members of the Anti-Ragging Squads or members of the Anti-Ragging Committee or the Wardens, as may be required.
 - (k) The University, shall ensure that institutions imparting instructions in or conducting Programme for teachers include inputs relating to anti ragging and the appreciation of the relevant human rights, as well as inputs on topics regarding sensitization against corporal punishments and checking of bullying amongst students, so that every teacher is equipped to handle at least the rudiments of the counselling approach.
 - (l) Discreet random surveys shall be conducted by Deans/Principal/DSW amongst the freshers every fortnight during the first three months of the academic year to verify and cross check whether the University is indeed free of ragging or not and for the purpose the Deans/Principal/DSW may design own methodology of conducting such surveys.
 - (m) The Deans/Principal shall cause to have entry, apart from those relating to general conduct and behavior, made in the Character Certificate issued to the students while leaving the University, as to whether the student has been punished for committing or abetting an act of ragging, as also whether the student has displayed persistent violent or aggressive behavior any inclination to harm others, during his course of study in the University.
 - (n) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules with regard to obligations and responsibilities pertaining to the authorities or members of bodies prescribed above, it shall be general collective responsibility of all levels and sections of authorities or functionaries including members of the faculty and employees of the University, whether regular or temporary, and employees of service providers providing service within the institution, to prevent or to act promptly against the occurrence of ragging or any incident of ragging which comes to their notice.

- (o) The Deans/Principal of the College of the University, as the case may be, shall, during the first three months of an academic year, submit a weekly report of the status of compliance with Anti-Ragging measures under these Rules, and a monthly report on such status thereafter, to the Vice-Chancellor.
- (p) The Vice-Chancellor, shall submit fortnightly reports of the University to the State Level Monitoring Cell.

7. Action to be taken by the Deans/Principal of the College of Horticulture

Ragging means doing an act which causes or is likely to cause insult or annoyance or fear or apprehension or threat of intimidation or outrage of the modesty or injury to a student. On receipt of the report of ragging, the concerned Dean/Principal will direct the committee to make an inquiry and report. On receipt of the recommendation of the Anti-Ragging Squads or on receipt of any information concerning any reported incident of ragging, the Deans/Principal shall immediately determine if a case under the penal laws is made out and if so, either on his own or through a member of the Anti-Ragging Committee authorized by him in this behalf, proceed to file a First Information Report (FIR), within twenty four hours of receipt of such information or recommendation, with the police and local authorities, under the appropriate penal provisions relating to one or more of the following, namely;
